

June 2010 - The District Court of Oregon will be hosting the Federal Court Clerks Association national conference in Eugene. Click below for more information about the conference.

The Federal Court Clerks Association conference will be held at the Eugene Hilton Hotel from June 27th through July 1st. Please visit the conference website at www.fcca2010Oregon.com. The website includes information about the educational sessions, lodging, transportation, and the "after hours" activities we have planned, as well as other things to see and do in the Eugene area.